WHAT IS CELL GROUP

A cell group is a small unit of LAIF Church. In the cell groups, members are provided with spiritual support, welfare assistance, fellowship, and facilitating discipleship all happen within the group.

A cell group is led by a minister or a worker. Different activities are organized in and through the cell group system.

2. The 3-Month unresponsive/inactive Rule:

- If a member remains inactive or unresponsive for 3 months, the cell leader or assistant will attempt to call or visit to check on the member's wellbeing.

3. Transfer to Cell 21:

- If after these efforts there is no response, the member will be considered inactive and will be transferred to Cell 21 and will be removed from his current cell WhatsApp group.

4. Welfare and membership recognition: Only active and committed members of the cell group are recognized as LAIF members and can access welfare due to members.

5. Very Important Note: For any celebration or ceremony to be conducted in the church — such as weddings, baby dedications, thanksgiving services, or related events — the church leadership will first require information regarding the member's cell group and a feedback/recommendation report from the respective cell leader concerning the individual involved.

Cell Group Engagement Policy

- Why you should belong to a cell group

- Being active does not mean attending every church service if it's not convenient due to your job, but it does mean maintaining communication and accountability with your cell leader.
- If you are absent from church for any reason, you are expected to indicate in your group's check-in poll that your cell leader posts at the end of every service. PLEASE DO NOT IGNORE IT. Below is an example of the weekly attendance poll, all you need to do is just to click on one.

LAIF Church – Welfare System/policy

Welfare System of LAIF Church

- ❑ The Welfare System of Life Abundant International Fountain (LAIF Church) is a compassionate care and support ministry established to demonstrate the love of Christ practically among members and the community.
- ❑ The welfare system exists to ensure that no member suffers alone during times of need, challenges, sickness, bereavement, emergencies, or other difficult situations. Through this ministry, the church provides spiritual encouragement, emotional support, visitation, counseling, and where possible, financial or material assistance to individuals and families in need.
- ❑ Funds for the welfare system are primarily raised through voluntary welfare contributions of members, special church support offerings, donations from members, and other approved welfare initiatives of the church.
- ❑ Assistance is usually extended first to committed members who are actively connected to the church through their cell groups, and other church activities, while also showing compassion and support to non-members and visitors whenever resources permit and genuine needs arise.
- ❑ All welfare assistance is administered prayerfully, responsibly, and with accountability under the guidance and approval of church leadership to ensure fairness, transparency, and wise stewardship of church resources.

LAIF Church Members' Responsibilities

Expected Members' Responsibilities

LAIF Church Belief on Giving, Offerings, and Tithing

LAIF Church on Giving, Offerings, and Tithing

At LAIF Church, we believe that giving is an act of worship, obedience, love, gratitude, and stewardship unto God. Everything we possess belongs to God, and believers are called to honor Him with their substance and increase. Giving is not merely a financial activity, but a spiritual principle that demonstrates faith, thanksgiving, commitment to God's Kingdom, and support for the work of the Gospel.

As Bible-believing Christians, we encourage every true believer to develop a consistent lifestyle of cheerful, willing, and sacrificial giving according to the teachings of Scripture.

Biblical Foundation for Giving

Proverbs 3:9–10 – “Honour the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase.”

2 Corinthians 9:6–7 – “God loveth a cheerful giver.” Luke 6:38 – “Give, and it shall be given unto you...”

LAIF Church Teaching on Tithing and Giving

At LAIF Church, we teach that every true believer should honor God faithfully through tithes and offerings as part of Christian stewardship and worship.

Giving should be done: Cheerfully, willingly, prayerfully and Faithfully with love and sincerity.

We do not believe in giving under manipulation or compulsion, but as an expression of faith, gratitude, obedience, and commitment to God's Kingdom.

Blessings of Giving:

- Divine provision and increase
- Kingdom partnership
- Open heavens and favor
- Spiritual growth and maturity
- Support for the propagation of the Gospel
